VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT

CHENGDU TD TECH LTD. AND CHINASOFT SIGN COOPERATION AGREEMENT: JOINTLY USHERING IN A NEW CHAPTER OF LOCALIZATION COOPERATION

Chinasoft International Limited (referred to as “Chinasoft” or the “Company”) is releasing this announcement as a voluntary disclosure to inform the public of the latest information regarding the Company.

The Company is pleased to announce that it has recently signed a formal cooperation agreement with Chengdu TD Tech Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “TD Tech”). Leveraging their deep expertise and resource advantages in IoT, big data, AI, and localization, the two companies will engage in comprehensive and in-depth cooperation across areas such as information innovation, product development, and ecosystem collaboration. Together, they aim to accelerate the development and implementation of a localized application ecosystem.

In the field of joint Xinchuang, both parties will jointly explore the technological and commercial value of information innovation technologies and industry applications. Leveraging TD Tech’s capabilities in the communications sector and Chinasoft International’s technical expertise in operating systems, databases, migration tools, and operation and maintenance tools, the two companies will collaborate to create industry operating systems, databases, and other information innovation alternative solutions for customers. In terms of product development collaboration, both parties are committed to developing more powerful and intelligent product solutions to meet the evolving business needs of customers. Besides, based on product development, the two sides will also cooperate on implementation services and sales ecosystem collaboration, providing customers with comprehensive solutions and service support.

This partnership strengthens the close relationship between Chinasoft International and TD Tech, laying a solid foundation for deeper cooperation in the localization sector. In the future, Chinasoft International will further enhance its product and technology capabilities, continuing to collaborate closely with TD Tech and more ecosystem partners. Together, they will focus on key industry sectors, co-develop and optimize products, improve the industrial ecosystem, and contribute to digital transformation and intelligent infrastructure development.
